BULLS ENTER SECOND SEASON UNDER LINGUIST

SEASON PREVIEW

The University at Buffalo football team enters its second season under head coach Maurice Linguist. However, since Linguist was hired in May 2021, this will be Linguist's first season following a full spring practice period.

The Bulls will have a number of new faces on offense, especially in the starting rotation as only four starters return on offense. However, one of those returners is All-MAC wide receiver Quian Williams who had 64 receptions for 835 yards in 2021.

Six starters return on defense, including a pair of All-MAC selections. Back for a fifth season, linebacker James Patterson was a first-team All-MAC selection each of the last two years. The Bulls have experience returning to the defensive line, led by All-MAC defensive tackle Daymond Williams.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter preseason camp.

QUARTERBACK

The Bulls return one quarterback with starting experience. Senior Matt Myers started two games last season but did not see significant action in 10 games. He threw for 703 yards and four touchdowns and rushed for 179 yards and four scores on the season.

Myers also started the first five games of the 2019 season before suffering an injury. As a starter in 2019, he threw for 602 yards and six touchdowns and rushed for 94 yards and two other scores. He did see some limited action in 2020 as a reserve.

Sophomore Casey Case continues to develop and has shown significant improvement. He did appear in one game in 2021 but did not attempt a pass.

A new addition to the UB roster who will challenge for the starting job is Rutgers transfer Cole Snyder. The Lakewood, NY native played in six games for the Scarlet Knights in 2021 and went 18-for-28 for 130 yards and a touchdown. He was an Academic All-Big Ten selection.

Back for his second season, redshirt-freshman Brian Plummer continues to develop.

RUNNING BACK

Ron Cook is one of the most versatile backs on the Bulls roster and continues to be a key weapon. In 2021, he rushed for 440 yards and three touchdowns and added 23 receptions for 232 yards and a score. He was also an All-MAC selection as a kick returner for the second straight season win 2021.

Mike Washington redshirted as a freshman last season but showed flashes that he could be ready to contribute more in 2022. In three games in 2021, Washington rushed for 132 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries.

Walk-on Tajay Ahmed is in his fourth season with the program. He has made the most of his time on the field, scoring two touchdowns on his seven career carries.

Matt Myers

Sophomore Caron Robinson missed last season with an injury but is healthy and looks ready to contribute in 2022.

Redshirt-freshman Al-Jay Henderson had a strong spring and stood out in the spring game. He will also likely be in the rotation.

True freshman Jackson Paradis, who enrolled in January, will also add depth at the running back position.

WIDE RECEIVER

Wide receiver is one area Coach Linguist wanted to shore up for the 2022 season. A number of new faces will join the Bulls in 2022, including a pair of Power Five transfers.

Linguist does have the benefit of a returning All-MAC receiver in Quian Williams. In his

Quian Williams

Daymond Williams

first season with the Bulls in 2021, Williams led the team in receiving with 64 catches for 835 yards and two touchdowns. He was an All-MAC Third Team selection.

Jamari Gassett showed promise as a true freshman in 2021. The Bulls' speedster started eight games and ranked third on the team with 20 catches for 270 yards and a touchdown.

Jovany Ruiz-Navarro missed most of last season with an injury but looks to be healthy and ready to contribute again in 2022. Though he only appeared in two games in 2021, he did make two starts and had seven catches for 109 yards and a touchdown.

Khamran Laborn appeared in 11 games and made one start as a true freshman in 2021. He had seven catches for 56 yards on the season.

A pair of Power Five grad transfers look to make an immediate impact for the Bulls.

Boobie Curry is a transfer from Arizona where he appeared in 26 games and started eight games over three seasons. He had his best season in 2021 with 21 receptions for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

Justin Marshall is a transfer from Louisville where he played five seasons. He started 12 games in 2021 and had 23 catches for 322 yards and a touchdown.

Juniors Marlyn Johnson and Javien Cuff as well as redshirt-freshman Ali Fisher continue to develop and will look to play a larger role in 2022.

Tre Hines, a JUCO transfer from California as well as Cole Harrity, a transfer from New Mexico State, will add depth to the wide receiver corps.

Buffalo native Nik McMillan is a true freshman on the squad.

TIGHT END

Tight end is a position where the Bulls did lose some experience. However, junior Trevor Borland does return after appearing in 12 games and making a start last season. He had seven catches for 59 yards and a touchdown in 2021.

With the lack of depth at the position, Dartmouth transfer Robbie Mangas was added in the offseason. The graduate transfer was a team captain for the Big Green and had 21 receptions for 424 yards and four touchdowns over his career.

Ray Embry, a transfer from East Central University where he was an all-conference selection, also joins the Bulls this season.

Cameron Ball, a true freshman from Washington DC, also joins the team this fall.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls return only one starter on the offensive line, but have turned to the transfer portal for added veteran experience.

Returning to the starting lineup is Gabe Wallace. The British Columbia native started all 12 games last season, including the final 10 games of the season at guard.

Alain Schaerer is in his fourth season with the program. He saw his most extensive action a season ago, appearing in eight games and starting twice at guard.

A number of graduate transfers look to make an immediate impact. Sidney Walker started nine games at center for Connecticut over the last two seasons. Desmond Bessent is a transfer from San Diego State where he appeared in 20 games and made two starts.

Nick Hartnett was a three-year starter at VMI where he was a two-time first-team all-conference selection.

Other transfers in include Isaiah Wright (Rutgers), Artese Gregory (Southern Utah) and Will Swope (Cornell).

Junior Caelan Shepard as well as sophomore Tyler Doty have added development and could also play bigger roles in 2022.

There are also a pair of young offensive linemen that redshirted last season and have a year of development under their belts, Matt Pajuste and Janik Ogunlade.

In addition, junior Dom Polizzi, who spent the last three seasons on the defensive line, has made the switch to offensive line.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls return experience on the defensive line, including five players that made at least two starts in 2021.

Daymond Williams burst onto the scene in 2021 after transferring from Cisco College. He led the Bulls in sacks with 6.5 and added 46 tackles and 10.5 tackles for loss en route to earning All-MAC Second Team honors.

George Wolo has started the last two seasons at defensive tackle and has been a steady presence in the middle of the defensive line. Last season he had 22 tackles, 2.5 sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Daishon Folsom had a good first season as a reserve defensive tackle after transferring from Hutchinson Community College. In 2021, he had 19 tackles and 2.5 sacks.

Max Michel started the first eight games at defensive end in 2021 before suffering an injury. He was enjoying the best season of his career prior to the injury with 36 tackles, 6.5

tackles for loss and four sacks.

Junior defensive ends Kyler Laing and C.J. Bazile had breakout seasons in 2021 and are trending upward heading into 2022. Laing had eight tackles for loss and ranked second on the team with 4.5 sacks. He had a program-record 3.5 sacks in a victory over Akron. Bazile started seven games in 2021 and had 30 tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack on the year.

Other young players looking to make an impact in 2022 include sophomore Michael Tetteh as well as redshirt-freshmen Solomanie Bambara and Floyd Dozier.

Ibrahim Kante (NC State) and Damian Jackson (Nebraska) are a pair of Power Five transfers who will look to make an immediate impact at defensive end.

Newcomers to the defensive line include JUCO-transfer Jaylon Bass as well as freshmen Devin Morgan, Cornell Evans and Kameron Olds.

LINEBACKERS

The linebacker unit is led by three-year team captain and two-time All-MAC First Team pick James Patterson. The middle linebacker led the Bulls and ranked second in the MAC in tackles in 2021 with 116 and added a team-best 13 tackles for loss as well as 4.5 sacks.

Shaun Dolac has been a nice surprise at linebacker. Originally a walk-on, Dolac was awarded a scholarship prior to the 2021 season. He responded by posting 37 tackles, six tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks on the season.

Juniors Fabian Weitz and Caleb Tate will also look to have more expanded roles in 2022.

Khalil Murdock, a freshman linebacker from Fork Union Military Academy, enrolled in January and was available for spring drills.

Fellow freshman Pershaun Fann is slated to play the nickel and also enrolled in January. Willie Hampton is a grad transfer from Western Carolina

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bulls have a good mix of veteran returners and graduate transfers in the defensive backfield.

Isaiah King started seven games at cornerback in 2021. He finished with 19 tackles, a forced fumble and two pass breakups.

Junior Logic Hudgens was showing a lot of promise before an injury in week four sidelined him for the remainder of the season. He had 11 tackles, an interception and a pass breakup before suffering the injury.

Redshirt-freshman Demarco Cuffy should also challenge for playing time.

Three transfers also plan to factor into the battle for the starting cornerback job, including two from Power Five programs.

Elijah Blades is a transfer from Florida who also spent time at Texas A&M. Caleb Offord spent the last two seasons at Notre Dame.

Jayden Oliver, a transfer from New Mexico Military Institute, has good size at 6-3.

Returning at safety include Marcus Fuqua who started seven games last season. He had 59 tackles and three breakups on the year.

Dylan Powell, in his fourth year with the program, started four games a season ago and had 20 tackles and a pass breakup.

Redshirt-freshman Jibrahn Claude and redshirt-sophomore Jalen McNair should also see time at the safety spot.

Graduate transfer Jahmin Muse started 11 games at safety for Boston College in 2020 and should factor in the battle for the starting safety job in 2022.

Keyshawn Cobb, a highly-coveted JUCO transfer from Northeast Mississippi Community College should also battle for the starting job.

Devin Grant is a true freshman with good size who could play a factor.

MAURICE "MO" LINGUIST

HEAD COACH
BAYLOR, 2006
SECOND SEASON

Maurice Linguist is in his second season as head coach of the UB football program. Considered by many as one of the top young minds in all of college football, Linguist was named the University at Buffalo's 26th head coach on May 8, 2021. It is a homecoming of sorts for Linguist who was the Bulls' defensive backs coach in 2012 and 2013.

In his first season as the helm, Linguist led the Bulls to a 4-8 record with an injury-riddled squad.

Seven Bulls were named to the All-MAC team, including James Patterson who was a first-team selection at middle linebacker. A program-best 19 Bulls were named to the Academic All-MAC team, including offensive lineman Jack Klenk who was also an CoSIDA Academic All-District selection.

Linguist is regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters and has excelled in coaching at both the Power Five level and the NFL. He came to UB from Michigan where he served a brief stint as defensive backs coach/co-defensive coordinator since January. He joined the U-M coaching staff after spending the 2020 season as cornerbacks coach with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys.

In Dallas, Linguist directed a secondary that forced 10 interceptions while allowing the fifth-fewest passing first downs in the league (180). The Cowboys were also ranked in the top half of the league in pass yards allowed (11th), completion percentage against (10th), and takeaways (ninth). Linguist coached rookie cornerback Trevon Diggs (three interceptions) to a strong first season in the league. Three of Dallas' four leading tacklers in 2020 were starters in the secondary, including former Wolverine Jourdan Lewis who set a career-high with 59 stops.

Linguist has worked with college secondaries at nine programs. Prior to heading to the NFL, he coached cornerbacks at Texas A&M (2018-19), defensive backs at Minnesota (2017), safeties at Mississippi State (2016) and defensive backs at Iowa State (2014-15)

At A&M, Linguist's secondaries limited opportunities for opponents and played tight coverage in key situations. Teams converted just 31.2 percent of third down tries (102-of-326) over his two seasons and A&M ranked ninth nationally in that category in 2018. The Aggies intercepted their opponents 19 times in his two seasons and made a habit of getting off the field. During the 2018 season, the defense was top-15 nationally in first downs allowed (221) and faced the fewest snaps against among all SEC teams.

Linguist helped the Aggies produce back-to-back top-six recruiting classes nationally in 2019 and 2020. He was the lead recruiter for five-star safety Jaylon Jones, the first five-star defensive back to sign with Texas A&M.

In his season at Minnesota, Linguist's secondary helped anchor a defense that finished No. 11 nationally with 174.5 yards allowed per game after listing 73rd in the NCAA a year earlier. The unit surrendered 16 touchdowns, a top-25 figure nationally and also ranked among the nation's best in first downs allowed (11th) and total defense (30th). Linguist was the lead recruiter for Rashod Bateman, the Big Ten's Wide Receiver of the Year. Linguist was promoted to assistant head coach following the 2017 season before accepting a position at Texas A&M.

FOR THE FANS

ON GAMEDAY

At Mississippi State, Linguist led the safeties group which was responsible for seven of the team's 14 interceptions. Three safeties eclipsed the 50-tackle mark for the Bulldogs: Brandon Bryant (62, three PBUs), Kivon Coman (58, four PBUs), and Mark McLaurin (51, seven PBUs) were among the team's leading tacklers. The defense scored four touchdowns (No. 8, NCAA) and totaled 14 interceptions (No. 35, NCAA) during the 2016 season.

Prior to his time in Starkville, Linguist coached defensive backs at Iowa State (2014-15). He coached players to three All-Big 12 honors in his two seasons at Iowa State, including safety Kamari Cotton-Moya, a first-team All-American freshman team selection by the Football Writers' Association of America (FWAA). Cotton-Moya led the team in tackles and was named the conference's Freshman of the Year on defense. Linguist would help direct cornerback Brian Peavy to be a finalist for the award the following year.

In his time at UB, Linguist helped the Bulls finish second in the MAC East and reach the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in 2013, at the time, the program's second bowl appearance. The unit ranked second in the league in interceptions (15), points per game allowed (24.4), and yards per game allowed (382.2). Linguist coached Najja Johnson to first-team all-conference honors and a career total of 38 pass breakups, second in program history. Johnson led the MAC in interceptions the year earlier as part of a Bulls unit that was tops in the conference in pass completion percentage allowed while ranking second in pass defense.

Linguist spent three years at James Madison, helping the program pull in the top FCS recruiting class during the 2012 cycle while the team reached the second round of the NCAA Football Championship Series Playoffs. Linguist's first full-time position was at Valdosta State, working with defensive backs and special teams. The Blazers went 9-3 and earned a No. 12 national ranking in Division II.

Linguist began as a graduate assistant at Baylor, his alma mater, working as a graduate assistant with the strong safeties and rover backs. During his career at Baylor, he was a defensive MVP and honorable mention All-Big 12 selection. He made 24 starts in 42 appearances as a strong safety from 2003-06. A native of Dallas, Texas, Linguist graduated from Baylor with degrees in communications (2006) and a master's in health, human performance and recreation (2007). He was an Academic All-Big 12 honoree.

Linguist and his wife, Stacie, have one daughter, Maura, and one son, Lance.

SHANE MONTGOMERY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS
NC STATE '90
SECOND SEASON AT BUFFALO

Shane Montgomery begins his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

The Bulls featured a balanced offense in 2021, his first season at UB. Buffalo averaged 195.5 yards rushing and 214.9 yards passing en route to scoring 29.3 points per game.

Four offensive players were named to the All-MAC team, including running back Dylan McDuffie who became the 10th player in program history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,049) and wide receiver Quian Williams whose 64 receptions ranked ninth in school history for a single season.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Montgomery brought nearly 30 years of Division I coaching experience to Buffalo, which included four years as an FBS head coach and 14 years as an offensive coordinator at both the FCS and FBS levels.

Montgomery most recently spent two seasons at James Madison where he called plays for one of the FCS' top-ranked offenses. The Dukes ranked 3rd in scoring in 2019 (40.0) and 14th in 2020-21 (33.6). JMU was 10th nationally in his first season in total offense (465.8) and 12th in the FCS in his second season (447.5).

The 2020-21 season, in which the Dukes reached the FCS semifinals, saw them rank second in the country on fourth down (85.7%), sixth in rushing (232.6), yards per completion (14.82) and time of possession (34:20), seventh in pass efficiency (156.28) and 10th on third down (48.4%).

Two offensive players earned All-America laurels following the program's first spring season in running back Percy Agyei-Obese and left tackle Raymond Gillespie. Four Dukes earned All-CAA honors in Agyei-Obese, Gillespie, offensive linemen Truvel Wilson and wide receiver Kris Thornton.

In 2019, The Dukes led the country in completion percentage (70.6%) and fourth-down offense (88.9%) while also ranking second on third down (53.6%), third in first downs (24.81), fourth in pass efficiency (169.44), sixth in the red zone (91.7%), seventh in time of possession (33:14) and 10th in rushing (242.9).

The Dukes also led the CAA in total offensive touchdowns (76), rushing touchdowns (43) and yards per pass attempt (9.1) and was second in yards per carry (5.0).

Four offensive Dukes earned All-America honors, including CAA Offensive Player of the Year Ben DiNucci and Touchdown Club of Richmond Offensive Lineman of the Year Liam Fornadel. Also earning All-America laurels were Percy Agyei-Obese and Mac Patrick.

He also saw eight offensive athletes make the all-conference team. In addition to DiNucci, Fornadel, Agyei-Obese and Patrick, Brandon Polk and Dylan Stapleton were Second Team All-CAA honorees, while Jawon Hamilton and Truvel Wilson were Third Team selections.

Montgomery's quarterbacks group was led by DiNucci, who paced the country in completion percentage and passed for better than 3,400 yards with 29 touchdowns and only six interceptions. The senior signal caller produced a 169.5 passer rating and completed nearly 71% of his passes.

Montgomery came to JMU after spending the 2018 season as offensive coordinator at Charlotte. 49ers won five games, which was a program-record at the FBS level. They also finished .500 in Conference USA for the first time, finishing with a 4-4 league record.

Prior to his stint with the 49ers, Montgomery led the offense for eight seasons (2010-17) at Youngstown State, coaching the top quarterback and some of the best running backs in school history. In each of his eight seasons, YSU threw and rushed for over 2,000 yards. The Penguins achieved the program's top-four outputs of total offense during his tenure (2011, 2016, 2010, 2017) while Montgomery called the plays.

Montgomery helped four-year starter Kurt Hess rewrite the YSU record books during his first four seasons as offensive coordinator. Hess finished his career as the school's all-time leader in completions (706), attempts (1,135), yards (8,925), touchdown passes (75), yards per game (198.4), 200-yard passing games (24), passer rating (144.96), touchdown responsibility (87), four-touchdown passing games (six), total offensive yards (9,459) and total offense per game (210.2).

He was part of YSU's run to the national championship in 2016, which included playoff victories against Samford, at Jacksonville State, versus Wofford and at Eastern Washington before falling to JMU in the title game. That season ended a 10-year playoff drought for the Penguins.

Before his run in Youngstown, Montgomery spent one season as offensive coordinator at Akron (2009) and eight years at Miami (OH), serving as offensive coordinator (2001-04) and head coach (2005-08). He also led the offense during his four years at the helm.

While at Miami, Montgomery mentored two-time Super Bowl champion quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, who set 21 program records in three seasons before being the 11th overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft. Roethlisberger threw for over 10,000 yards and 80 touchdowns in his three-year collegiate career. Montgomery was also a two-time finalist for the Frank Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach.

In his four seasons as head coach with the RedHawks, he guided the team to a share of two Mid-American Conference East division titles (2005, 2007). His first season as head coach saw Miami win five of its last six games, place 11 players on the all-conference team and have seven players move on to the NFL the following season.

Montgomery also had stops as an assistant at Chattanooga (1993-00) and at NC State (1991-92) where he was a quarterback from 1986-89. He was a three-year starter and led the Wolfpack to two bowl berths, earning Offensive MVP honors at the 1988 Peach Bowl and 1989 Copper Bowl. He was a Second Team All-ACC selection in 1989 and finished his career with over 5,000 passing yards and 31 touchdowns.

He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons, Tanner and Trent. Tanner is a catcher for the Bridgewater baseball team and Trent is a pitcher at Catawba College.

RON WHITCOMB

TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR
MAINE '06
SECOND SEASON AT BUFFALO

Ron Whitcomb begins his second season as tight ends coach and has added recruiting coordinator to his title.

Under Whitcomb in 2021, there was an increase in productivity from the tight end position over the previous two seasons. Tight ends accounted for 27 receptions for 276 yards and three touchdowns in 2021 - their highest output since the 2018 campaign.

Tight end's Jake Molinich and Trevor Borland were both named to the Academic All-MAC team.

Whitcomb began his career at UB in 2020 as the team's scouting coordinator and offensive analyst. The Rochester native spent the previous 12 seasons as quarterbacks coach at Old Dominion.

Whitcomb guided quarterback Blake LaRussa to a 3,000-yard season that saw the junior signal-caller finish No. 14 in FBS with 274.1 passing yards per game. That number jumps to 300 yards per game when taking out the two games where he played sparingly. In ODU's 49-35 stunner over No. 13 Virginia Tech, LaRussa passed for 495-yards and four touchdowns. The 495-yards was a C-USA high in 2018 and the second most ever allowed by a Tech defense. LaRussa earned multiple National Player of the Week awards and was named C-USA Player of the Week. LaRussa finished second in C-USA with 274.1 yards per game and led league quarterbacks with six, 300-yard passing games.

LaRussa was the second quarterback in ODU history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single-season, throwing for 3,015, and joining current NFL QB Taylor Heinicke in that regard. LaRussa earned C-USA honorable mention honors, becoming the third ODU quarterback in the Monarchs' five years in the league to earn All-C-USA honors, joining Heinicke and David Washington.

A year after graduating senior quarterback David Washington, the ODU offense was taken over by true freshman Steven Williams in 2017. Williams' first career start came at Virginia Tech and the improvement each week from the then 17-year old was noticeable. In the final four games of the year, Williams completed 68 percent of his passes for 664 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers, while rushing for 101 yards and two more touchdowns. Williams was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team.

Whitcomb groomed quarterback David Washington to the second-best touchdown to interception ratio in the country in 2016 to help ODU to a 10-3 overall record and victory in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl. Washington passed for 2,836 yards and 31 touchdowns in his first full season as a starter, after playing wide receiver most of the previous two seasons.

Whitcomb guided current Washington Football player Taylor Heinicke to a tremendous four-year career as 2015 was the first time since 2011 that Heinicke was not behind center. Shuler Bentley and David Washington split the QB duties, combining to complete 234-for-432 for 2,2587 yards and 20 touchdowns. Bentley started the year at quarterback and led a come-from-behind win at Eastern Michigan in the opener and a win over Norfolk State before Washington came in vs. Charlotte for the second series, going 25-of-43 for 365 yards and four touchdowns for a dramatic 37-34 win over the 49ers. Washington led ODU to wins over UTSA and UTEP before suffering a season-ending injury at Southern Miss.

Whitcomb guided four-year starting quarterback Taylor Heinicke to one of the best statistical careers of any Division I quarterback ever. Heinicke ranks third all-time among FBS quarterbacks in total yards of offense with 16,279 and sixth in career passing yards with 14,959. Heinicke's 132 career touchdown tosses is fourth most all-time, just two behind Texas Tech's Graham Harrell for third place.

In 2012, the Monarchs led the FCS in scoring offense with 45.15 points per game, passing offense at 393.85 and total offense with 548.23 yards per game. Whitcomb helped lead Taylor Heinicke to the most prolific season by a quarterback in FCS history. Heinicke led the nation in passing yards, passing yards per game, touchdown passes, total TD's, total offense and points responsible for. Heinicke set FCS single-season record for passing yards and completions. Heinicke threw for 5,076 passing yards surpassing Steve McNair's record of 4,863 he set for Alcorn State in 1994. Heinicke's 398 completions broke Brett Gordon's mark of 385 he set in 2002 for Villanova. Heinicke won the Walter Payton Award given to the Best Player in the FCS, becoming just the second sophomore ever to win the award. The 2012 season also saw Heinicke earn CAA Offensive Player of the Year honors and first-team All-CAA honors. He received First-Team All-America honors by seven organizations and won the Dudley Award for the best Division I Player in the state of Virginia.

Under Whitcomb's watch, the Monarchs had a two-time Walter Payton Watch List member in Thomas DeMarco in 2010 and 2011 and the College Football Performance Awards FCS National Performer of the Year, Jerry Rice Award Runner-Up, and the Payton Award Winner in Heinicke.

Before joining the Old Dominion staff, Whitcomb was a four-year starter at the University of Maine from 2003-2006.

Whitcomb, departed as the Black Bears' all-time leader in completions (755), total offense (8,801) and touchdown passes (68). His 8,183 passing yards ranked second, as did his .592 completion percentage. One of three senior captains at Maine in 2006, Whitcomb was named the Atlantic-10 and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Rookie of the Year as a redshirt freshman after passing for 2,428 yards and 21 touchdowns. The passing yardage was the most by a freshman in Atlantic-10 history and he also established a new school record with touchdown passes in 11 straight games.

A standout off the field as well, Whitcomb was honored as the 2006-07 Atlantic-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. He earned his B.S. in education from Maine in 2006 and a M.S. Ed. in educational leadership at Old Dominion University in 2009.

MATT STANSFIELD

OFFENSIVE LINE
DUQUESNE '07
SECOND SEASON AT BUFFALO

Matt Stansfield is in his second season as the Bulls' offensive line coach. Under Stansfield's guidance, UB's offensive line continued to be one of the team's strengths in 2021.

The Bulls ranked second in the MAC in fewest sacks allowed with 16. In addition, UB ranked fifth in the MAC in rushing - averaging 195.5 yards per game. The line blocked for running back Dylan McDuffie who rushed for 1,049 yards - the 10th best single-season effort in program history.

Two starters on the offensive line were named to the All-MAC team. Left tackle Jake Fuzak was named to the second team and guard Jack Klenk was named to the third team. In addition, five members of the offensive line were named Academic All-MAC.

Stansfield came to UB after spending the previous five seasons as run game coordinator and offensive line/tight ends coach at Duquesne. A former player and coach at Duquesne, he returned to his alma mater after serving as offensive coordinator at Waynesburg for four seasons.

Duquesne, which has ranked among the Top 50 nationally in rushing offense in each of the past five seasons, has seen five backs combine to post 33 100-yard games since Stansfield's return to The Bluff.

Last season, running back A.J. Hines capped his standout career becoming the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,629 career rushing yards. The running back earned his fourth consecutive All-NEC award, sharing the backfield with fellow All-NEC selection Mark Allen. The pair became the first two running backs to garner All-NEC honors in the same season since the Dukes joined the conference in 2008.

A big part of the the Duquesne duo's success running the ball was the Dukes' offensive line, keyed by All-NEC picks Sterling Jenkins and Gabe Spurlock. Stansfield and the Duquesne O-line ranked 26th in the country with the fewest sacks allowed at 1.55 per game.

In 2018, Stansfield and the Dukes' running game enjoyed a standout campaign which saw Duquesne claim its fifth NEC crown, as the Dukes earned their second Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoff berth and won their first FCS Playoff contest in program history.

Running back A.J. Hines garnered NEC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was recognized as a finalist for the STATS FCS Walter Payton Award for the top offensive player at the FCS level. He closed out the season third in the country in rushing yards and sixth in the nation in rushing touchdowns, tallying a program-record six-straight 100-yard rushing performances during a six-game winning streak for Duquesne.

Hines - who has earned three straight First Team All-NEC nods with three 1,000-yard seasons in a row - enters his senior season in 2019 as the FCS active leader in career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns.

Stansfield also coached a pair of All-NEC performers on the offensive line in Alex Conley and Matt Fitzpatrick, who helped pave the way for Hines' 20 100-yard rushing games over the last three seasons.

Additionally under Stansfield's guidance, tight end Stew Allen finished with five touchdown receptions on the season.

In 2017, the Dukes paced the NEC in rushing offense (198.5 ypg.) keyed by Hines, who posted his second consecutive 1,000-yard season.

In 2016, Hines ran for 100 yards seven times on his way to winning the STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award.

Prior to returning to Duquesne, Stansfield guided Waynesburg's offense to new heights, as the team averaged over 400 yards per game in 2014. In 2013, Waynesburg averaged 387.3 yards per game, including a 283.8 ypg. through the air. The 2012 offense featured a physical running attack that averaged a conference-best 201.9 yards per game while allowing just five quarterback sacks all season.

Prior to his appointment at Waynesburg, Stansfield was Duquesne's running backs coach and run game coordinator from 2009-11.

In 2011, Duquesne (9-2) rushed for an average of 212.8 yards per game - a mark that led the NEC and ranked 15th nationally. Then-junior Larry McCoy spearheaded the ground game with 1,381 yards. McCoy's 117.4 yards rushing per game ranked 11th nationally.

Prior to his stint at Duquesne, Stansfield spent one year (2008) at Howard University, where he worked with the school's defensive line.

CEDRIC DOUGLAS

DEFENSIVE LINE
NORTHERN MICHIGAN '11
SECOND SEASON AT BUFFALO

Cedric Douglas is in his second season as UB's defensive line coach.

The Bulls had an aggressive defensive line in 2021. UB ranked second in the Mid-American Conference in sacks per game (3.1). In Buffalo's win over Akron, the Bulls had a program-record 11 sacks, including a school-record 3.5 sacks by defensive end Kyler Laing.

Defensive tackle Daymond Williams was named All-MAC Second Team. The JUCO transfer led the Bulls and ranked sixth in the MAC in sacks with 6.5. He added 46 tackles and 10.5 tackles for loss while playing both defensive tackle and defensive end.

Prior to coming to Buffalo, Douglas spent two seasons as defensive line coach at Massachusetts. Douglas joined the program following time spent coaching at the scholastic and collegiate levels over the prior seven years.

Douglas worked with the youthful defensive line throughout the 2019 season, that featured 13 different starters throughout the season due to injuries. In total, the defensive line accounted for 215 tackles on the year, including 22.0 TFLs.

Most recently, Douglas helped Arkansas State reach back-to-back bowl games in 2017 and 2018, during which he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line. His efforts in guiding the defensive line led to a pair of major awards for Red Wolves standouts as Ja'Von Rolland-Jones won 2017 Sun Belt Player of the Year and Ronheen Bingham followed as the 2018 Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year. Both also won All-Sun Belt First Team during their respective seasons.

The 2018 Arkansas State team went 8-5 overall, including five wins in the Sun Belt and earned a berth in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. The defensive line featured prominently into the team's success as the Red Wolves' overall defense ranked among the nation's leaders in tackles for loss (No. 13), total defense (No. 17), first down defense (No. 21) and red zone defense (No. 27).

Arkansas State finished Douglas' first year with the team sporting a 7-5 overall record, a 6-2 mark in the Sun Belt and an appearance in the Camellia Bowl. The defense again ranked among the nation's most prolific, including a spot in the top-10 with 8.8 tackles for loss per game (No. 6).

Douglas spent 2016 as defensive line coach and academic liaison at Hutchinson Community College in Kansas. During his lone season at Hutchinson, the Blue Dragons defense ranked No. 12 in the nation in scoring defense (18.0 ppg), No. 10 in total defense (242.0 ypg) and No. 13 in rushing defense (91.0 ypg).

Hutchinson's defense at Hutchinson led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in sacks with 44, and the defensive line accounted for 24.5 of those to go along with 74.5 tackles for loss.

Douglas tutored two All-Region VI First Team selections, including Ronheen Bingham and J.J. Holmes. He also coached second team all-conference pick Tayland Humphrey, the No. 1 JUCO defensive tackle in the nation for his signing class.

Douglas went to Hutchinson after serving as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas during 2015. The Red Ravens posted an 8-3 record, while their offense ranked No. 5 in the nation in scoring (over 50 ppg) and No. 8 in total offense (over 480 ypg). He coached Second Team All-Jayhawk Conference selection Trevor Neloms as well.

The 2013 and 2014 seasons saw Douglas coach at Ave Maria University in Florida in multiple roles.

Working as the running backs and return specialist coach in 2013, Douglas was part of the staff that achieved the program's first winning season while also being recognized as the NAIA Independent Conference champions. The Ave Maria staff was selected to coach the NAIA All-Star Team in the NAIA vs. Division II All-Star game.

During 2013, Douglas tutored USCAA All-America running back Scott Jones, who led the team with 12 rushing touchdowns, while the kick return unit averaged 23.2 yards per attempt. Ave Maria went 8-2 overall on the year, the most wins in a single season in the history of the program.

Douglas was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 2014 and also moved from running backs coach to wide receivers coach. The 2014 season saw his receiving corps post over 2,200 receiving yards and 20 touchdowns, both of which led the conference. He coached Travis Makauskas, who led the league in receptions, yards and touchdowns and was selected for the 2014 NAIA vs. D2 All-Star Game.

Douglas began his coaching career at Lincoln High School in the fall of 2012, operating as the varsity outside linebackers and running backs coach. He helped lead the team to a 6-3 record, and the squad produced three all-conference players.

The Milan, Michigan, native was a member of the Northern Michigan University football team from 2007-11, appearing in 35 games as a linebacker and defensive end while recording 89 tackles, 9.0 sacks and two interceptions.

Douglas earned his bachelor's degree in special education/secondary education in 2011.

GREG KNOX

RUNNING BACKS/ASST. SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
NORTHWESTERN STATE '88
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Greg Knox begins his first season as running backs coach and will also serve as assistant special teams coordinator. He brings over 30 years of coaching experience to Buffalo, including 25 years in the SEC. He spent the last four seasons as running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Florida.

With the Gators, he oversaw a potent rushing attack. The Gators twice averaged over 200 yards per game on the ground in his time there. They ranked fourth in the SEC in rushing in 2018 (213.2 ypg) and fifth in 2020 (208.7 ypg).

He served as Florida's interim head coach for the final two games of the 2021 season, including a 24-21 win over Florida State.

Prior to his time at Florida, Knox was an assistant at Mississippi State from 2009-17. He also served as special teams coordinator for his final four seasons with the Bulldogs. He and Linguist were on the same staff at Mississippi State in 2016.

Over the course of his nine seasons as running backs coach he tutored a 1,000-yard rusher five times. Four of those backs reached the NFL.

In 2017, MSU averaged 249.6 yards per game on the ground, which was third in the SEC and 14th nationally. That tally was the best by a Bulldog squad since 1980 when it put up a school-record 280.5 yards per game.

In addition, Mississippi State produced the SEC's most individual 100-yard rushing games in 2017 with 11 (six by Nick Fitzgerald, four by Aeris Williams, one by Keytaon Thompson). MSU rushed for over 250 yards eight times and was 7-1 in those contests.

The Bulldogs eclipsed 250 rushing yards in 12 of 19 games between 2016 and 2017.

Knox mentored Anthony Dixon, the former NFL standout, during his senior season. Dixon rushed for a school-record 1,391 yards and found the end zone 12 times. But it wasn't only the All-SEC tailback who thrived under Knox's guidance, as the running backs combined for more than 2,000 yards as the Bulldogs led the conference in rushing yards.

Knox went to Mississippi State following a 14-year stretch as Tommy Tuberville's wide receivers coach at both Ole Miss and Auburn.

A veteran of 15 postseason bowl games, Knox helped lead the Auburn offense to the top of the SEC in scoring in both 2004 and 2005.

After earning his bachelor's degree while playing quarterback for Northeastern State, Knox began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1988. Knox spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Northeastern State and two at TCU before being named to the staff at Stephen F. Austin in 1992.

In three seasons on the Lumberjacks' staff as the receivers and special teams coach, Knox helped a program that had won only three games in the previous two seasons to the 1993 FCS playoffs and a top-25 ranking the following season.

A native of Rosebud, Texas, Knox is married to the former Toralyn Foster, and the couple has three sons --- Gregory, Torian and Tyson.

Sherman most recently was the assistant head coach and coached the wide receivers at Murray State. In his time with the Racers, LeMarte Brooks was an All-OVC First Team selection and Jacob Bell earned second-team All-OVC honors.

From 2000-18, Sherman worked with power five programs, including three ACC teams. He coached in five ACC Championship games, winning three titles.

From 2015-18, Sherman was the wide receivers coach at Pittsburgh. He coached the Panthers' all-time leading receiver Tyler Boyd.

From 2013-14, Sherman was the wide receivers coach at Purdue. He coached Deangelo Yancey who was named to the 2013 Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

Sherman spent seven years at Virginia Tech as wide receivers coach (2006-12). He coached standouts Jarrett Boykin and Danny Coale, at the time, the top two receivers in Hokies' history in terms of receptions and receiving yards. Both starting at Tech from 2008 to 2011, Boykin finished his collegiate career with 184 receptions for 2,884 yards and 18 touchdowns, while Coale recorded 165 catches for 2,658 yards and eight scores. During his time at Virginia Tech, the Hokies went a combined 60-22 with seven bowl appearances, including four BCS bowl bids (2007 Orange, 2008 Orange, 2010 Orange and 2011 Sugar).

Prior to Virginia Tech, Sherman spent five seasons at Wake Forest University (wide receivers), four at MAC-foe Ohio (wide receivers), four at Virginia Military Institute (recruiting coordinator), two at Methodist College (wide receivers) and one at his alma mater Ferrum College (student assistant).

A native of Radford, VA, he graduated from Ferrum in 1992, after serving as the team captain of the football team and being elected as the team MVP as a senior in 1990. He was inducted into Ferrum's Hall of Fame in 2012.

KEVIN CORLESS

LINEBACKERS
NORTHWEST MISSOURI STATE
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Kevin Corless enters his first season as linebackers coach at Buffalo. He brings over 30 years of coaching experience, most recently serving as linebackers coach at Samford.

Corless was the linebackers coach for Samford's 2021 spring and fall seasons. Upon his arrival, the Bulldogs made dramatic improvements, including moving from last to first in the Southern Conference in takeaways, interceptions and opponent third-down conversion.

Corless arrived at Samford from Army West Point, where he served as the inside linebackers coach from 2014 to 2019. He helped lead the Black Knights from a 2-10 season in 2013 to averaging nearly 10 wins a season over the 2016, 2017 and 2018 campaigns, earning 29 wins. The 2018 team won 11 games, the most in school history.

Prior to Army, Corless spent two seasons at Georgia Southern. In 2012, he guided the linebackers and then served as co-defensive coordinator with Jack Curtin in 2013. The 2012 squad advanced to the FCS national semifinals and the 2013 team beat Florida, but was not eligible for postseason play as the Eagles made the jump to FBS.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, Corless spent nine years at Arkansas State. He was the co-defensive coordinator for the first seven years before handling the defense solely his last two seasons. In addition, he oversaw the linebackers and punt return units.

Rivals.com named Corless the Sun Belt "Defensive Coordinator of the Year" for the accomplishments of his 2009 Red Wolves' defense. That season capped a four-year run that saw the defense claim either first or second in each of the league's five major defensive statistical categories.

Corless has guided seven players who have been selected in the NFL draft since 1998, including second-round choice Tyrell Johnson, the 2007 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Corless mentored Alex Carrington to the league's top defensive honor and a third-round selection by the Buffalo Bills. DeMario Davis is the most recent of Corless' charges to be drafted when he was chosen in the third round by the New York Jets in 2012. He guided 10 All-Sun Belt Conference linebackers and three Freshmen All-America choices.

Corless was at Northwestern State in 1995 as a defensive line coach and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator in 1999 with oversight of the linebackers during his final three seasons. Northwestern State made NCAA FCS playoff appearances in 1997, 1998 and 2001 and won two Southland Conference titles.

Corless played and graduated from Northwest Missouri State and spent two seasons as a graduate assistant where the team went 10-2 and qualified for the national playoffs. He moved to Montana Tech to mentor linebackers and serve as special teams coordinator. During his eight seasons, he helped the Orediggers transform from winless in three seasons into conference champions and an NAIA playoff team in 1992.

Corless and his wife Stacey have three children, Anne, Caitlin and Joe.

BUFFALO 69, WAGNER 7

SEPT. 2, 2021 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – It was a successful debut for new UB football head coach Maurice Linguist as the Bulls easily disposed of Wagner, 69-7, at UB Stadium on Thursday night. The Bulls scored on each of their first 11 possessions and never looked back.

Buffalo rolled up 569 yards of total offense and held the Seahawks to just 97 yards. The Bulls outgained Wagner, 312-18, in rushing yards. Seven different players scored touchdowns for the Bulls.

Quarterback Kyle Vantrease looked polished under center for the Bulls. The senior signal-caller finished 15-for-19 for 231 yards and a touchdown. He hit Jovany Ruiz in stride for a 63-yard touchdown on the game's second play to quickly put the Bulls ahead, 7-0.

From there, UB did most of its damage on the ground. Kevin Marks, Jr. rushed for a pair of touchdowns as did Dylan McDuffie. Jake Molinich rumbled in for his first career touchdown and Tajay Ahmed capped the scoring with a six-yard touchdown run.

Ron Cook, Jr. was the Bulls' leading rusher with a career-best 94 yards on 14 carries and a 6-yard TD. Marks finished with 72 yards to move into sixth place in school history in career rushing yards with 2,693. He also moved into fourth place in program history with 30 career rushing touchdowns.

Matt Myers entered the game at quarterback in the third quarter and his first pass was a 26-yard touchdown to Maryln Johnson.

While the offense got most of the spotlight on Thursday night, the defense was quite stout. The Bulls had five sacks and nine tackles for loss in the game.

Taylor Riggins, who missed last season with an injury, led the way with six tackles and two sacks on the night. Newcomer Daishon Folsom was also strong up front with five tackles, a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss. George Wolo, Kadofi Wright (0.5) and Max Michel (0.5) also added sacks for the Bulls.

The 69 points were the most ever scored by a UB team in a season opener and the 62-point differential was the highest in UB's FBS era (since 1999).

#16 COASTAL CAROLINA 28, BUFFALO 25

SEPT. 18, 2021 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo football team went toe-to-toe with the 16th-ranked team in the country, but came up just short to Coastal Carolina, 28-25, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Chanticleers looked the part at the start of the game as they drove 55 yards and scored a touchdown on their first possession of the day. However, the Bulls answered right back as they mounted a 12-play, 86-yard drive on their ensuing possession, capped by a Dylan McDuffie 2-yard run to tie the game at 7-7.

UB scored again on its next possession as quarterback Matt Myers rushed up the middle for a 13-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead at the end of the first quarter. The key to that scoring drive was a heads-up play by Ron Cook, Jr. The junior running back scooped up a UB fumble and scampered 63 yards to the Coastal 21-yard line.

Coastal Carolina answered right back, scoring a touchdown on its next possession to tie the game, 14-14. The game remained tied at the half.

The Chanticleers scored on their opening drive of the second half to take a 21-14.

UB was able to get points on its ensuing possession as Alex McNulty knocked home a 36-yard field goal to cut the Coastal lead to 21-17 with 6:08 left in the third quarter.

Coastal Carolina took an 11-point advantage early in the fourth quarter and after getting the ball back and looking to score again, had an opportunity to put the game away. However, Logic Hudgens picked a good time for his first career interception. The sophomore cornerback picked off Coastal quarterback Grayson McCall in the endzone to give the Bulls life.

Buffalo capitalized as it drove 92 yards and scored on a 7-yard run by Kevin Marks, Jr. and got the two-point conversion when Kyle Vantrease connected with Quian Williams. The Bulls trailed, 28-25, with 2:41 remaining.

Unfortunately, Coastal Carolina was able to earn a couple key first downs and ran out the clock for the victory.

The Bulls relied heavy on the run game, rolling up 262 yards on the ground. McDuffie led the way with a career-high 92 yards on 15 carries. Cook rushed for 85 yards on only six carries and Marks added 64 yards.

Vantrease was efficient, finishing 13-of-20 for 146 yards. His favorite target was Dominic Johnson who had six catches for 66 yards, both career highs. Cook and Williams each added a pair of catches for the Bulls.

The defense held the Chanticleers' high-octane offense to a season-low 444 yards of total offense, including a season-low 212 yards on the ground.

Defensive end Taylor Riggins was a beast for the Bulls, finishing with seven tackles, two sacks, three tackles for loss and two forced fumbles. It was the second straight double-digit tackle performance for James Patterson as the senior linebacker finished with 11 stops. Safety E.J. Brown had a career-high 10 tackles in the game.

BUFFALO 35, OLD DOMINION 34

SEPT. 25, 2021 • S.B. BALLARD STADIUM • NORFOLK, VA

NORFOLK, VA - The University at Buffalo football team held off a furious comeback attempt by Old Dominion for a 35-34 win at S.B. Ballard Stadium on Saturday night. The win improved their record to 2-2 as they head into Mid-American Conference play next week.

The Bulls scored 28 unanswered points in the second quarter to take a 35-7 lead. UB used big plays by all facets of their team, offense, defense and special teams.

Buffalo got on the board first five minutes into the game when C.J. Bazille blocked a field goal attempt, recovered the ball and scampered 90 yards for a touchdown. Old Dominion answered with a touchdown to tie the game late in the first quarter. However, the second quarter was all UB.

Quarterback Kyle Vantrease called his own number for a four-yard touchdown run to put the Bulls ahead, 14-7. The Bulls scored again on its next possession when Vantrease connected with Quian Williams for a 13-yard touchdown.

Williams had the best game of his UB career with nine catches for 134 yards. He had seven catches for 120 yards in the first half alone.

Dylan McDuffie scored on a 20-yard touchdown run up the middle to extend the UB lead to 28-7. McDuffie was the Bulls leading rusher in the game with 59 yards on 16 carries.

Just over a minute later, Tim Terry scooped up a fumble and dashed 67 yards for yet another score. The Bulls led 35-7 at the half.

Old Dominion roared back, scoring twice in the third quarter to cut the lead to 35-21. Midway through the fourth quarter, the Monarchs scored again to cut the UB advantage to seven.

On Old Dominion's next possession, it looked like the Monarchs might score again, but James Patterson ripped the ball loose near the goal line and Daymond Williams recovered, giving the ball back to the Bulls at their own 3-yard line with 3:03 left.

Old Dominion had one last chance, and with 19 seconds left, connected on a touchdown pass to pull within one point. However, an unsportsmanlike penalty pushed the extra point attempt back 15 yards and was missed, allowing the Bulls to hold on for the one-point victory.

Max Michel was one four Bulls with 10 tackles in the game and he added 1.5 sacks. Cory Gross, Marcus Fuqua and Kadafi Wright also added 10 stops, career-highs for each player.

WESTERN MICHIGAN 24, BUFFALO 17

OCT. 2, 2021 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo football team allowed 17-straight points in the fourth quarter to drop their Mid-American opener, 24-17, to Western Michigan at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The loss spoiled a great defensive gameplan by the Bulls who held the Broncos' high-octane offense in check for most of the game.

Western Michigan scored first to take a 7-0 lead with 1:40 left in the first quarter. The Bulls quickly responded when, on the second play of their ensuing possession, Ron Cook, Jr. ripped off a 55-yard touchdown run to tie the game, 7-7.

From there, it turned into a defensive battle as neither team would score for the remainder of the half. The Broncos threatened late in the half, but a goal-line stand by the Bulls, capped by a fourth-down sack by George Wolo kept the game tied.

The Bulls broke the tie on their first drive of the second half when they drove 62 yards on 13 plays to set up a 37-yard Alex McNulty field goal. UB held the three-point advantage into the fourth quarter.

Western Michigan tied the game early in the fourth quarter on a field goal of its own and then, after a UB three-and-out, quickly struck again on a 64-yard touchdown pass to take a 17-10 lead with 9:34 left in the game.

After another fourth-quarter score by the Broncos, the Bulls drove the length of the field and got one back on a Kyle Vantrease 1-yard quarterback keeper to cut the lead to 24-17 with 1:17 left. However, UB was unable to recover the onside kick allowing Western Michigan to hold on for the victory.

It was another strong game for Bulls' wide receiver Quian Williams. The grad transfer finished with six catches for 119 yards – his second straight 100-yard performance.

Linebacker James Patterson led the defense with a career-high 14 tackles. Safeties Marcus Fuqua and Cory Gross, Jr. each tied career highs with 10 tackles apiece. It was the second straight game they had double-digit tackles.

With his field goal and two extra points, McNulty moved into fourth place in school history in scoring by a kicker with 149 points.

KENT STATE 48, BUFFALO 38

OCT. 9, 2021 • DIX STADIUM • KENT, OH

KENT, OH – A valiant comeback attempt by the University at Buffalo football team came up short at Kent State on Saturday night. The Bulls trailed 31-10 at the half and battled all the way back to take a 38-34 lead after three quarters of play. However, the Golden Flashes scored 14-unanswered points to earn the 48-38 victory.

Early on it was clear Kent State was out for revenge on Buffalo after losing 70-41 last season at UB Stadium. Kent State looked in total control, scoring on nearly every possession of the first half. But, following some adjustments, the Bulls looked like a totally different team in the second half.

The Bulls came out of the locker room and scored on each of their first four drives. First, Kevin Marks, Jr. took it in from 16 yards out for his second rushing touchdown of the game. On the next drive, Kyle Vantrease connected with Jake Molinich on a 10-yard touchdown pass to quickly cut the Kent State lead to 31-24.

The Bulls tied the game on their next possession when Matt Myers went over the left end for a 4-yard touchdown run. Dylan McDuffie gave the Bulls their first lead of the game, 38-34, with a 10-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter.

Unfortunately, Kent State scored 14-unanswered points in the fourth quarter to pull away for the victory.

Buffalo rushed for 312 yards in the game, their best effort of the season. It was a balanced effort as McDuffie rushed for 87 yards, Marks rushed for 80 yards and Ron Cook, Jr. finished with 72 yards.

Vantrease threw for 229 yards in the game, connecting with 11 different receivers. Quian Williams again led the Bulls with eight catches for 86 yards. As a team, the Bulls finished with 549 yards of total offense, their most against an FBS opponent this season. UB ran a season-high 99 plays.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Kadofi Wright and Ja'Marcus Ingram who each had 10 tackles in the game. James Patterson added nine stops.

BUFFALO 27, OHIO 26

OCT. 16, 2021 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Alex McNulty drilled a 26-yard field goal, as time expired, to lift the University at Buffalo football team to a 27-26 come-from-behind victory over Ohio at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls scored 17-unanswered points in the fourth quarter to earn the victory.

Early on, the Bulls had trouble stopping the Bobcats' rushing attack as they allowed Ohio to run for 181 yards and build a 21-0 lead after only one quarter of play.

McNulty got the Bulls on the board with a 43-yard field goal midway through the second quarter. In the final minutes of the half, Dylan McDuffie scored a 4-yard touchdown run to cut the Ohio lead 21-10 at the break.

McDuffie had the first 100-yard rushing game of his career. The junior running back finished with 143 yards and a score while making the first start of his career. His day included a career-long 58-yard dash.

Ohio outscored the Bulls, 5-0, in the third quarter, which included a safety on a botched punt attempt, and things look bleak for the home team.

Trailing, 26-10, heading into the fourth quarter, Buffalo turned to some of their youngsters and, boy, did they step up.

Heading into Saturday's game, Tyler Stephens had two catches on the season. The sophomore tight end had three catches in the fourth quarter alone, including his first career touchdown to cut the Ohio lead to 26-16. Kyle Vantrease connected with McDuffie on the 2-point conversion and the Bulls trailed 26-18 with 13:11 left.

Fellow tight end Trevor Borland caught his first career touchdown, an 8-yard pass from Vantrease, on the Bulls' ensuing possession, to cut the Ohio lead to 26-24 with 8:39 remaining. The touchdown drive was set up by a forced fumble by Max Michel that was recovered by Kadofi Wright.

After the Bulls defense forced another three-and-out, highlighted by a Daymond Williams' sack, UB regained possession at its own 5-yard line with 6:19 left on the clock.

The Bulls methodically marched down the field, picking up key plays by Stephens, Dominic Johnson, Ron Cook, Jr. and Jamari Gassett, to move the chains. Buffalo did a great job working the clock and was able to set up McNulty in the middle of the field for the game-winner as time expired.

After allowing 226 yards of total offense in the first quarter, Buffalo's defense settled down and only allowed 120 yards the rest of the game. Linebacker James Patterson had a career-high 15 tackles, including a tackle for loss to lead the way.

BUFFALO 45, AKRON 10

OCT. 23, 2021 • INFOCISION STADIUM • AKRON, OH

AKRON, OH – The University at Buffalo football team put together its most impressive performance of the season on Saturday afternoon, cruising past Akron 45-10 at InfoCision Stadium. The Bulls never trailed en route to winning their second straight game.

Turnovers played a big factor in the contest as the Bulls forced four Akron turnovers and converted three of them into points. In the first quarter, Max Michel recovered a fumble and returned it to the Akron seven-yard line, setting up a 23-yard field goal by Alex McNulty to give the Bulls a 3-0 lead.

Dylan McDuffie extended the UB lead to 10-0 early in the second quarter on a two-yard touchdown run. It was another big day for the junior running back who finished with 111 yards rushing and also added a four-yard touchdown catch.

Quarterback Kyle Vantrease added a rushing touchdown in the second quarter and found Jamari Gassett for a 15-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulls a 24-10 lead at the half.

Vantrease had an efficient afternoon, finishing 15-of-20 for 241 yards and three touchdowns. His favorite target was Gassett who had the best game of his career with four catches for 95 yards and a score.

The Bulls got touchdowns catches by Dominic Johnson and McDuffie and a rushing touchdown by Jake Molinich in the third quarter to extend their lead.

Kyler Laing had one of the finest defensive performances in program history. The sophomore defensive end had 3.5 sacks and a forced fumble in the game. His 3.5 sacks were the most by a player in a single game in the Bulls' FBS era (since 1999).

Overall, the Bulls had a program-record 11 sacks in the game, shattering the previous record of eight. The 11 sacks are the most by an FBS program this season, besting the 10 sacks Ohio State had against Akron earlier this year.

The Bulls rolled up nearly 500 yards of total offense and it was pretty even as UB finished with 231 yards on the ground and 253 yards through the air.

BOWLING GREEN 56, BUFFALO 44

OCT. 30, 2021 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team dropped a high-scoring affair to Bowling Green, 56-44, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The loss snapped the Bulls' two-game winning streak as they dropped to 4-5 overall and 2-3 in Mid-American Conference play.

Big plays helped Bowling Green jump out to a 28-10 lead at the half before the Bulls began to rally. Buffalo scored two third-quarter touchdowns to get right back in the game. Dylan McDuffie scored on a 2-yard touchdown run followed by a Matt Myers 3-yard run to cut the BG lead to 28-23 with 3:09 left in the third quarter.

Myers was pressed into action when starting quarterback Kyle Vantrease was injured late in the first half.

From there, the teams traded touchdowns. Bowling Green scored on a 30-yard pass play to retake a 35-23 lead early in the fourth quarter. The Bulls responded with a 76-yard scoring drive, capped by a 13-yard touchdown run by McDuffie, his second of the game, to cut the lead to 35-30.

McDuffie had the best game of his career, rushing for 166 yards and two touchdowns on 34 carries – all career highs.

On the first play of Bowling Green's ensuing possession, the Falcons scored on a 77-yard run to extend their lead to 42-30. The Bulls answered right back on a 10-yard Myers' touchdown run to cut the lead to 42-37 with 6:54 left.

The Bulls defense got the stop they needed and regained possession with 4:47 left. However, they couldn't move the ball and turned it over on downs deep in their own territory. Bowling Green capitalized with another touchdown to take 49-37 lead.

The Bulls made one final push, quickly driving down the field and scoring on a Myers to Dominic Johnson 4-yard touchdown pass, with just under one minute to play, to make it a five-point game once again. But it wasn't enough as the Falcons held on for the victory.

Myers finished the game 12-of-24 for 239 yards and a touchdown and rushed for two scores. It was his most extensive action since he started at Miami (OH) on Sept. 28, 2019.

The Bulls tied a program record by running 99 plays and racked up 499 yards of total offense.

Johnson had a career-best 96 yards receiving on four catches. Quian Williams had 87 yards receiving on five catches. Freshman running back Mike Washington scored on a 14-yard run for his first career touchdown.

Linebacker James Patterson led the defense with seven tackles, two TFLs and 1.5 sacks. Defensive end C.J. Bazile had five tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss.

MIAMI (OH) 45, BUFFALO 18

NOV. 9, 2021 • YAGER STADIUM • OXFORD, OH

OXFORD, OH – Miami (OH) capitalized on multiple UB turnovers to defeat the Bulls, 45-18, on Tuesday night at Yager Stadium. The RedHawks were able to score touchdowns on three Buffalo turnovers to set the tone for the game.

Miami scored on a long touchdown pass on its first offensive play from scrimmage to quickly take a 7-0 lead. But the Bulls responded with a 75-yard drive, capped by a Dylan McDuffie 10-yard touchdown run, to tie the game, 7-7. It was the fifth straight game McDuffie scored at least one rushing touchdown.

The RedHawks jumped ahead, 17-7, early in the second quarter before the Bulls got on the board with a 24-yard field goal by Alex McNulty to cut the lead the seven.

The UB defense did its part on the ensuing possession to force a turnover on downs. However, on the very next play, a long pass down the field was intercepted by Miami. The RedHawks capitalized by driving 74 yards and scoring on a 27-yard touchdown run to lead 24-10 at the half.

A fumble by the Bulls on their first possession of the third quarter set up Miami inside the UB 10-yard line. The RedHawks scored two plays later to capture a 31-10 advantage.

Trailing, 38-10, the Bulls kept battling and Matt Myers connected with Quian Williams on a 20-yard touchdown pass to make a dent in the lead. Williams finished the game with nine catches for 104 yards.

McDuffie was the leading rusher in the game with 91 yards. Kevin Marks, Jr. was back in the lineup and rushed for 18 yards, becoming just the sixth player in program history to rush for 3,000 career yards.

McNulty had a milestone moment himself, becoming the first player in program history to make 100 consecutive extra points.

Cory Gross, Jr. led the defense with a career-high 13 tackles. James Patterson added nine tackles and a sack. True freshman Jibrah Claude made his first career start at nickel and had six tackles, a forced fumble and made a nice open-field tackle on third down to force a Miami punt.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 33, BUFFALO 27 (OT)

NOV. 17, 2021 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team dropped a heartbreaker to Northern Illinois in overtime, 33-27, at UB Stadium on Wednesday night. The Bulls battled back from a 14-point second-half deficit to force overtime before losing the Huskies, who clinched the Mid-American Conference West Division title with the win.

After a 10-10 tie at halftime, Northern Illinois scored 14-straight points in the third quarter to take a 24-10 lead and was looking to pull away. But senior defensive end Eric Black, playing his final game at UB Stadium, turned the game around with a strip sack that he recovered at the NIU 28-yard line late in the in third stanza.

Ron Cook, Jr. scored on a 22-yard run, just two plays later, to cut the Northern Illinois lead to 24-17.

After a strong defensive series by UB, the Bulls got the ball right back and drove down the field looking to tie the game. Matt Myers, making his first start at quarterback since the 2019 campaign, found Cook in the flat for a 13-yard touchdown and all the sudden the game was tied, 24-24, with 12:22 left.

Northern Illinois took the ensuing possession and drove 66 yards down the field, taking 7:24 off the clock. A 27-yard field goal gave the Huskies a 27-24 lead with 4:58 left in regulation.

When the Bulls got the ball back, they drove down the field and got into field goal range. On a 4th and 8 at the UB 33-yard line, Myers hit Dominic Johnson for a 14-yard completion to keep the drive alive.

The drive stalled at the NIU 37-yard line, giving Alex McNulty an opportunity to tie the game with a long field. All the junior kicker did was drill a 55-yard field goal – the longest in program history – to tie the game at 27-27 with just over a minute to play.

Northern Illinois had a chance to win the game in regulation but missed a 37-yard field goal as time expired, sending the game to overtime.

The Bulls got the ball first in overtime and drove all the way down to the 1-yard line. Unfortunately, the Bulls fumbled the ball into the endzone and the Huskies recovered. NIU scored on the first play of its first possession to earn the walk-off win.

After struggling over the last two games, the UB defense stepped up and had a strong showing. Redshirt-freshman Shaun Dolac earned his first career start and responded with 14 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss – both career highs. James Patterson had 11 tackles, including a career-best 3.5 tackles for loss. The senior linebacker eclipsed 100 tackles on the season. As a team, the Bulls had 10 tackles for loss in the game.

Myers finished the game 16-of-23 for 162 yards and a touchdown. Running back Dylan McDuffie had his fourth 100-yard game in the last five games, rushing for 125 yards and a touchdown in the game.

BALL STATE 20, BUFFALO 3

NOV. 23, 2021 • SCHEUMANN STADIUM • MUNCIE, IN

MUNCIE, IN – The University at Buffalo football team dropped their season finale to Ball State, 20-3, at Scheumann Stadium on Tuesday night.

Ball State capitalized on an interception on Buffalo's opening drive and a blocked punt deep in UB territory on its next possession to take a 14-0 lead and never looked back.

Alex McNulty got the Bulls on the board in the second quarter with a 38-yard field goal to cut the Ball State lead to 14-3.

Unfortunately, the Bulls struggled to get the offense going. Matt Myers, making his second start of the season at quarterback, couldn't seem to get into a rhythm. He passed for 188 yards and rushed for a game-high 78 yards.

Dylan McDuffie finished with 67 yards on the ground to become the 10th player in program history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. He finished the year with 1,049 yards – the 10th most in school history for a single season.

The defense played well and settled in after being put in precarious situations early. The Bulls held the Cardinals to only 230 yards of total offense, including just 54 yards on the ground.

James Patterson and Shaun Dolac led the Bulls with 10 tackles each. Daymond Williams had a career-high nine tackles, including two tackles for loss and a sack. Aapri Washington had a career-best three pass breakups in the game.

Bernard Porter had a career-best 4 catches for 53 yards in the game. The redshirt-sophomore had seven career catches heading into the game. Ron Cook had four catches for 56 yards.

The Bulls finished the season with a 4-8 overall record and 2-6 mark in the MAC.

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCutcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "...did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program.

James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winning season over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay

"Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestic motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was hand-picked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

HISTORY OF UB FOOTBALL

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I.

After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of the Year honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

In 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transferred from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career tackles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a then school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker

Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles , just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

The Bulls won the final three games of the 2017 season to finish 6-6 and earn bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. In his first season at UB, junior wide receiver Anthony Johnson burst onto the scene with 76 catches for 1,356 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge set an FBS-era record with 154 tackles on the year.

2018 was arguably the best season in the FBS era. The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, including a 7-1 mark in conference play - their best since joining the MAC in 1999. Buffalo played in the MAC Championship game for the second time in school history, dropping a 30-29 heartbreaker to Northern Illinois. UB played in its third bowl game in program history, falling to Troy, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time a UB player won the award.

Even with the departure of key personnel, the 2019 season proved to be a special one for the Bulls. UB finished with a record of 8-5 and finished the campaign by winning six of its last seven games, including a 31-9 victory over Charlotte in the Bahamas Bowl for the school's first bowl game victory. Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson set single-season school records with 1,799 yards rushing and 19 rushing touchdowns and paced a rushing attack that set a school record with 3,256 yards. A program-record 12 players were named to the All-MAC team.

The 2020 campaign was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, once the season started in early November, the Bulls quickly established themselves as one of the best teams in the MAC. UB blazed through the regular season a perfect 5-0 and even made an appearance in the Top 25 for the first time in program history. The Bulls lost to Ball State in the MAC Championship game, but rebounded to win their second bowl game in as many years, defeating Marshall, 17-10, in the Camellia Bowl. Jaret Patterson was the story of the 2020 season. The junior running back rushed for 1,072 yards and 19 touchdowns in only six games. He led the nation in rushing average (178.7 ypg) and eclipsed 1,000 yards in his fifth game, tying the FBS record for earliest game to reach 1,000 yards. He was the MVP of the MAC and earned All-America honors.

Maurice Linguist was named the 26th head coach in program history on May 8, 2021. He led the Bulls to a 4-8 record in his first season. Running back Dylan McDuffie rushed for 1,049 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year.

TORONTO, ONTARIO - The University at Buffalo's magical 2008 season was derailed by a powerful Connecticut team that was able to dominate both lines of scrimmage en route to a 38-20 win over the Bulls at the third annual International Bowl at Rogers Centre. The game was played in front of an International Bowl record 40,184 fans, of which roughly 30,000 were wearing the Royal Blue and White of the Bulls.

The Bulls late-season magic seemed to be ready to carry into 2009 when Buffalo used five UConn turnovers to race to a 20-10 first-half lead. However, the Huskies (8-5) scored the last 28 points of the game behind 261 yards by the nation's leading rusher, Donald Brown, to subdue the Bulls.

Buffalo (8-6) still had an opportunity to win in the game's final minutes, but a pass by senior quarterback Drew Willy was broken up in the end zone and returned 100 yards for a score by Dahan Deleston with 2:15 remaining. The loss did not dampen head coach Turner Gill's feelings about his team.

After falling behind to the Huskies, 10-3, early in the second quarter, the Bulls' late-season propensity for forcing turnovers showed itself again in a huge way, leading to Buffalo scoring on three straight possessions.

The Bulls first big break came when freshman punter Peter Fardon boomed a 54-yard punt that was mishandled by Jasper Howard into his own end zone where Buffalo freshman Ray Anthony Long fell on it for his first career touchdown. That tied the score 10-10 with 11:36 left in the half.

The very next possession, UConn quarterback Tyler Lorenzen was sacked by UB's Anel Montanez and Andrae Smith, with the ball coming loose and being recovered by defensive end Jerry Housey at the UConn 18-yard line.

The Bulls, however, had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by sophomore A.J. Principe that gave Buffalo its second lead at 13-10 with 8:22 left before half.

The magic continued on the ensuing kickoff, when UConn's Robbie Frey fumbled the kickoff into his endzone, was crunched by linebacker Justin Winters at the six-yard line and coughed up the ball, recovered by UB's John Syty at the Huskies four-yard line.

One play later, junior tailback James Starks ran over a Huskie defender at the one-yard line to put Buffalo up 20-10 – after the PAT – with 7:55 left in the second quarter.

In that incredible sequence, UB scored 17 points in 3:41 of game time while running four offensive plays.

The game's momentum, however, began to swing back to the Connecticut side late in the first half. That's when Brown, on a first-and-10 from the UConn 12-yard line, busted a 75-yard run to the UB 13-yard line. Lorenzen scored on the game's next play and cut the Buffalo lead to 20-17 at intermission.

For the remainder of the game, UConn's stout defense and outstanding offensive line would dominate, allowing the Huskies to rush for 358 yards in the game. The Bulls, meanwhile, would suffer through their worst offensive performance of the year. UConn held Starks to just 46 yards on 24 touches (13 carries, 11 receptions), while Willy finished 29-of-43 for 213 yards, but was held without a touchdown pass for just the second game this season.

Flanker Naaman Roosevelt capped an incredible campaign with eight receptions for 90 yards, becoming the first UB receiver to ever record 100 catches in a season – finishing just one away from the all-time MAC record with 104 catches for 1,402 yards – both easily UB school records.

The Bulls defense, which played valiantly by forcing four fumbles – was paced by sophomore Davonte Shannon who had 15 tackles – one for loss – including 10 solo stops and added his first career blocked kick. Winters added eight tackles and a forced fumble, while Montanez had three tackles, a half-sack, a two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

BOISE, ID – Playing in just its second bowl game in school history, the University at Buffalo football team lost to San Diego State, 49-24, in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl at Bronco Stadium on Saturday night. The Bulls end their season with an 8-5 record.

Buffalo, a team which prided itself on taking care of the football all season, turned the ball over three times in the game. The Aztecs capitalized by scoring 21 points off those turnovers.

San Diego State jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter before the UB offense awoke. The Bulls drove 75 yards and cut the lead in half when Joe Licata connected with Branden Oliver on a 10-yard screen pass to make the score 14-7 with 7:51 left in the half. For a player who has had 33 rushing touchdowns over his career, it was surprisingly his first career receiving touchdown.

After the Bulls defense forced a San Diego State three-and-out on its ensuing possession, they were back in business. UB drove to the Aztec 27-yard line and a Patrick Clarke 38-yard field goal cut the lead to 14-10 with 4:01 left in the half.

However, the Aztecs scored on their next possession and then with just over a minute to play in the half came up with an interception off a tipped pass. Just one play later, they punched it into the endzone to take a 28-10 lead with 38 seconds left in the half. The way the end of the half transpired seemed to take the wind out of UB's sails.

Things didn't get better for the Bulls as they fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half and San Diego State quickly struck for another touchdown to take a 35-10 lead. The Aztecs extended their lead to 42-10 before the UB offense got on the board again. Licata connected with Alex Neutz on a 23-yard touchdown strike to cut the lead to 42-17 with 14:53 left in the game. Neutz finished his career with a school-record 31 touchdown receptions.

San Diego State running back Adam Muema was dominant in the game and his third touchdown of the day put San Diego State ahead, 49-17. Muema was the MVP of the game after rushing for 229 yards and three scores.

The Bulls scored their final touchdown of the game when Licata found Fred Lee from 10 yards out with just 36 seconds left to make the final score, 49-24.

After a slow start, Licata finished the game by throwing for 196 yards and three touchdowns. He finished the season with 23 touchdown passes, one shy of the school record of 24 set by Drew Willy in 2008.

Oliver was named the Player of the Game for Buffalo after rushing for 114 yards. It was his 20th career 100-yard game – seven more than any other player in school history. He finished his outstanding career rushing for a school-record 4,049 yards. He is just the 13th player in Mid-American Conference history to rush for over 4,000 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Adam Redden who had nine tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

San Diego State ran most its plays away from All-American linebacker Khalil Mack as he was limited to six tackles. He did add a pass breakup and a fumble recovery. The loss brings an end to the storied career of Mack, arguably the greatest linebacker, if not player, in school history. He holds the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA record for career tackles for loss with 75.

MOBILE, AL – The University at Buffalo football team uncharacteristically turned the ball over four times and it proved to be the difference in a 42-32 loss to Troy in the Dollar General Bowl held at Ladd-Peebles Stadium on Saturday night. The Trojans were able to score 14 points off turnovers and had possession of the ball for much of the second half.

It started out well for the Bulls as, like they had done many times this season, went right down and scored on their first possession of the game. After Antonio Nunn hauled in a deflected pass for a 51-yard gain, Jaret Patterson scored on an 11-yard touchdown run to give Buffalo a quick 7-0 lead.

Troy needed just three plays to tie the game, as Trojan quarterback Sawyer Smith hit a streaking Tray Eafford in stride for a 60-yard touchdown.

The Bulls mounted a 14-play, 96-yard drive, early in the second quarter, and Kevin Marks capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown dive to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead with 11:06 left in the half.

After the Trojans tied the game at 14-14 with 6:15 left in the second quarter, the Bulls mounted a 10-play, 41-yard drive and Adam Mitcheson drilled a 41-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give UB a 17-14 lead at the half.

The Trojans took the opening kick of the second half and kept their offense on the field for the entire third quarter. After mounting a 75-yard scoring touchdown drive on their first possession to take a 21-17 lead, Troy surprised the Bulls with an onside kick and got the ball right back. However, with the ball inside the UB 5-yard line and it looking like Troy was going to score again, James Patterson came up with a big hit to jar the ball loose from the Trojans quarterback. Safety Tyrone Hill scooped it up and dashed 93-yards for a touchdown to put the Bulls back up, 24-21.

However, a gassed UB defense remained on the field and Troy capitalized. The Trojans needed 12 plays to drive 69 yards and scored on a 2-yard touchdown pass to regain a 28-24 lead early in the fourth quarter. Following a 3-and-out by the Bulls, Troy struck again, connected on a 45-yard touchdown pass to build its lead to 35-24 with 11:25 left in the game.

The Bulls didn't give up. K.J. Osborn made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab to cut the deficit to 35-30. On the ensuing 2-point conversion try, Tyree Jackson scrambled, eluded rushers and found Nunn in the endzone for the conversion. The Bulls trailed 35-32 with 7:24 left in the game.

Following a Wesley Scott third-down sack, the Bulls got the ball back on their own 21-yard line with 3:28 left and trailing by three. However, on the first play of the drive, Jackson was sacked and fumbled the ball. It was recovered by Troy. On the very next play, the Trojans ran it in for a touchdown to extend their lead to 42-32.

Despite the loss, a number of Bulls finished the season by hitting significant milestones. Patterson rushed for 67 yards in the game to put him over 1,000 for the season. With 1,013 yards on the year, he became the first freshman running back in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Anthony Johnson had 67 yards on five catches to go over 1,000 yards on the year. He became just the third player in school history to have two 1,000-yard seasons in a career.

Jackson threw for 274 yards in the game to put him over 3,000 for the season. He joined Drew Willy (2008) as just the second quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season with 3,131.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS – History was made on Saturday afternoon as the University at Buffalo football team won the first bowl game in school history by defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl played at Thomas Robinson Stadium in Nassau, Bahamas

Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson was named the Offensive Most Valuable player after rushing for 173 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

While Patterson paced the offensive attack, it was the defense that shined in the Bahamas sun. Charlotte, one of top rushing teams in Conference USA, and 25th nationally, was limited to just 80 yards on the ground. Junior defensive end Malcolm Koonce was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player after tallying five tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble. He had two of UB's five sacks in the game.

The Bulls wasted little time getting on the board as they scored on their first possession. Kyle Vantrease connected with Antonio Nunn on a 12-yard fade pattern to give UB a 7-0 lead with 9:12 left in the first quarter.

Vantrease called his own number with a quarterback sneak, with three minutes left in the half, to give the Bulls a 14-0 lead.

Linebacker James Patterson made one of the biggest defensive plays of the game when he came up with an interception on Charlotte's first play of its ensuing possession. The Bulls were able to convert that into a 31-yard Alex McNulty field goal to take a 17-0 lead at the half.

Buffalo extended its lead to 24-0 on a 6-yard Patterson touchdown run, his first of the game, with 5:22 left in the third quarter.

Charlotte finally got on the board late in the third quarter on a 51-yard touchdown pass. Linebacker Matt Otwinowski sniffed out the 49ers' two-point conversion try to keep it a three-score game, 24-6.

After Charlotte kicked a field goal to make the score 24-9 with 10 minutes left in the game, the offense put together its most impressive drive of the game. The Bulls mounted a 16-play, 75-yard drive that took over nine minutes off the clock. Patterson put the game on ice with a 10-yard touchdown run with 1:43 left.

With a couple injuries on defense, reserve players had to step up. Junior cornerback Ali Abbas was one of those players as had a career-high nine tackles and a big pass breakup.

Seniors Joey Banks and Devon Russell finished their career on a high note with nine and seven tackles, respectively. Fellow senior Ledarius Mack's sack was the final play of the game.

MONTGOMERY, AL – Kevin Marks, Jr. scored on a 2-yard touchdown run with just over one minute to play and the defense withstood a late rally to lift the University at Buffalo football team to a 17-10 win over Marshall in the 2020 Camellia Bowl on Friday afternoon in Montgomery, AL. It was the second straight year the Bulls were victorious in a bowl game.

While the offense got the headlines all season, it was the UB defense that had its finest performance of the year to hold off the Thundering Herd. The Bulls held Marshall to 248 yards of total offense.

Marks was named the game's MVP after rushing for 138 yards and a touchdown in the game. The junior running back was effective early rushing for 117 yards in the first half. This against a Marshall squad that was ranked second in the nation in rushing defense.

The Bulls opened the scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run by Vantrease early in the second quarter. Alex McNulty added a 25-yard field goal with 5:33 left in the half to extend the UB lead to 10-0.

Marshall got a spark late in second quarter by scoring a touchdown with just 42 seconds on the clock to cut the UB lead to 10-7 at the half. The Thundering Herd came out and kicked a short field goal on their first possession of the second half and suddenly the game was tied, 10-10.

The score would remain tied until late in the contest. After Eric Black came up with a sack on third down, the Thundering Herd punted the ball back to the Bulls. UB started its game-winning drive at its own 12-yard line with 7:27 left on the clock.

The Bulls methodically marched down the field behind the arm of quarterback Kyle Vantrease. The junior signal-caller first connected with Jovany Ruiz to pick up a 3rd-and-7 at the UB 44. The key play on the drive was a 26-yard completion to Antonio Nunn, setting up the Bulls at the Marshall 18. After two short runs, the Bulls were faced with another third down. Vantrease threaded the needle to Nunn for a 12-yard completion and UB had the ball at the Marshall 1-yard line. Two plays later, Marks waltzed into the endzone for the game winning score.

On Marshall's ensuing possession, it drove all the way down to the UB 20. However, Kadofi Wright broke through the line for a sack. Two plays later, on fourth down, Black thwarted the comeback attempt with his second sack of the game.

James Patterson had a team-high nine tackles in the game and Cory Gross, Jr. finished with eight. Max Michel had the best game of his career, finishing with six tackles, a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Vantrease finished 16-of-27 for 140 yards. Ruiz, who was just awarded a scholarship the night before, was his favorite target. The Fredonia native finished with seven catches for 61 yards, both career highs. Nunn had four catches for 49 yards.

The Bulls finished the season 6-1 and bowl champions for the second straight season. It was the second bowl win in program history.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today...and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories - the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania... we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said.

"[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start - it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind changed so dramatically...we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark...we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there...' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual... his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration... there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

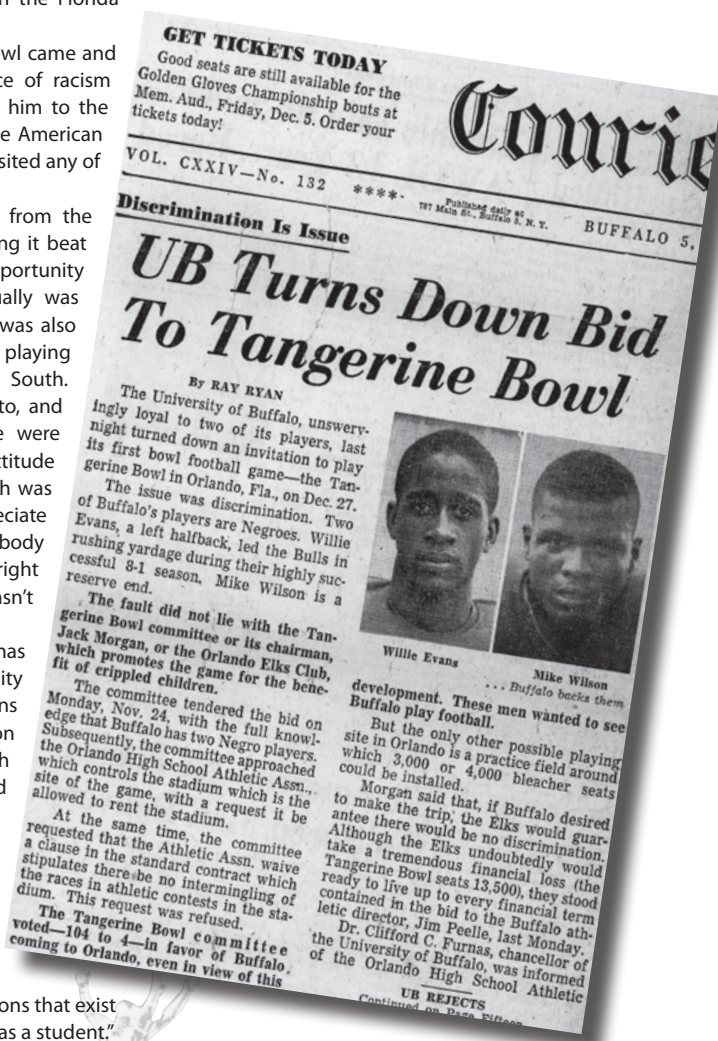

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."
